

Amsterdam Dance Event expects record breaking edition

375,000 visitors in 140 clubs and venues all over Amsterdam

The Amsterdam Dance Event (ADE) has completed the program. From October 19 till 23, the international electronic music industry puts its spotlight on Amsterdam. With well over 2.200 artists, 450 conference speakers and a record breaking 140 participating venues, Amsterdam Dance Event is the world's biggest dance music club festival and leading business platform for the electronic music industry, each edition attracting more visitors and participants. For the 2016 edition, the 21st since ADE's inception in 1996, the organization expects to welcome the record number of 375.000 visitors.

As of today, Armin van Buuren (NL), Erick Morillo (US), Floating Points (GB), Four Tet (GB), Job Jobse (NL), Martin Solveig (FR), Modeselektor (DE), Oliver Heldens (NL), Philip Glass (US) and Yellow Claw (NL), among others, are included on the bill of ADE 2016.

Moreover, ADE, an initiative of Buma, has secured the contribution of several prominent speakers. Among others, the artists Joris Voorn (NL), Laurie Anderson (US), Philip Glass (US) and Nicky Romero (NL), plus Rob Newlan (GB, EMEA director Facebook Creative Shop) and Matthew Ogle (GB, creator Discover Weekly Spotify) will expound on their work.

Earlier, the organization announced the participation of Steve Bartels (US, CEO of the Def Jam label), Molly Neuman (US, Head of Music Kickstarter) and producer Hudson Mohawke (GB) in the conference, which welcomes a total of 450 speakers at eight venues.

The night program, ADE Festival and its 2.200 acts and artists performing over five nights in nearly 100 Amsterdam venues, boasts the highest concentration of dance artists and live acts on offer on the planet.

Apart from the extensive night program and the various conference elements, ADE Playground presents a comprehensive and profound cultural program, including a wide range of art exhibitions, cinema shows, lectures and workshops at 40+ locations all over Amsterdam.

Personal trip through the world of dance

Creating is the central topic of ADE: virtually all of Amsterdam's recording studios are booked for the third week of October for the production of new tracks; live electronic music is performed at ADE LIVE; new technology presented and created; and new collaborations forged that will determine the musical landscape of 2017 and onwards.

The program of ADE 2016 is extensive in scope and depth, allowing each visitor to navigate his or her personal trip through the world of dance, from the city camping and student education of ADE University at NDSM Wharf via the Rembrandthuis to Amsterdam ArenA and the Bible Museum.

Since its inception in 1996, Amsterdam Dance Event has evolved into the leading business platform of the global dance scene. It is the place to be and spot the latest developments: from musical trends and upcoming talents to the most recent output of dance's pioneers and superstars.
